

Connecticut Export Week
Exporting To China
April 24, 2017
Ferguson Library Auditorium
One Public Library Plaza, Stamford, CT
3:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.

As part of Connecticut Export Week, the Connecticut China Council, together with the Stamford Chamber of Commerce, has organized a panel of experts from the U.S. and from China who will discuss the intricacies of exporting to China, including a review of the current environment in China for U.S. products, an overview of relevant legal issues, how to finance your export business, government resources and how to market and brand in China.

Moderator: Jin Hu, President, CAST-CT

PANEL ONE: THE CURRENT ENVIRONMENT IN CHINA FOR U.S. EXPORTS

Robin Gerofsky Kaptzan, Senior Foreign Counsel, Duan & Duan, Shanghai, China
Paul Edelberg, Esq., Fox Rothschild LLP, Stamford, CT

PANEL TWO: TOOLS FOR EXPORTING TO CHINA

Andrea Ratay, Regional Trade Manager, Global Finance, TD Bank (financial tools)
John Xu, U.S. Small Business Administration, CT (Government tools)
Steven Maskell, The Silk Initiative North America, LLC, New York, NY (Marketing tools)

RECEPTION FOLLOWING

This event is free. To register, please sign up through the following link: <http://ctexportweek.com/privatepage/>

We want to express our gratitude to Ferguson Library for contributing the venue for this event.

Co-Sponsors:

